Envelopes	344
Presbytery	$ 565.65

We pray in thanksgiving for Janette Inquanez, Maxine Sant and all those who have died recently.

We pray for Canute Reay, Reggie Rodriguez, Janine Kelly, Ron Knight and all those whose anniversary occurs at about this time.

Please also pray for Francis Barone, Sandra Ferraro, Rose Caruso, Thomas Lapid, Kathie Lunn, Patrick Meehan and all those who are sick.

OFF TO A GOOD START

It was cold, it had been raining; but it did not deter around 200 Resurrection parishioners from participating in our first Parish Meeting Night for 2011-12. We began our "new year" (as we have on fourteen previous occasions) with the celebration of Mass. Each group then had their own meeting; and at 8.30pm we all gathered for supper. There really was a great spirit present and while most groups are going well for numbers; the Bulletin, FOG, and School Council, could do with a few more parishioners. The next Parish Meeting Night is Wednesday 3 August commencing at 7.15pm.

AN IDEA

A suggestion has been made that after our 10.30am Mass cars exit the big car park via the entry gate i.e. the gate closest to Movelle School.

The suggestion is that cars would enter the car park in the same way as now. However after Mass the present exit gate would only be for pedestrians (one gate could be closed and a "witches hat" could block the other half). Allowing pedestrians to enter the car park but preventing cars from exiting.

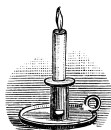

The idea behind the suggestion is that it would be firstly safer for pedestrians and at the same time make car exiting easier.

What do you think? Please talk about it and write or email Fr Noel, alternately put your comments in our Suggestion Box.

CHILDREN AND CANDLES

There are a number of children going into the Blessed Sacrament and Marian chapels after Mass (mainly after the 10.30am Mass) and playing with candles and matches.

This is both dangerous and disrespectful. Parents please supervise your children after Mass.

NOT TOO TIGHT

You might have noticed that we have acquired some additional green "Gather Australia" hymn books through the generosity of the Mooroolbark parish.

Please do not squeeze that extra hymnbook into the racks. If they are too tightly packed the spine of the book gets damaged when they are removed.

Next Week's Reading - 17th July 16th Sunday in Ordinary Time - Year

Reading 1

Is 55:10 - 11

There is no god besides you who have the care of all, that you need show you have not unjustly condemned. For your might is the source of justice; your mastery over all things makes you lenient to all. For you show your might when the perfection of your power is disbelieved; and in those who know you, you rebuke temerity. But though you are master of might, you judge with clemency, and with much lenience you govern us; for power, whenever you will, attends you. And you taught your people, by these deeds, that those who are just must be kind; and you gave your children good ground for hope that you would permit repentance for their sins.

Responsorial Psalm

86:5-6, 9-10, 15-16

R. (5a) Lord, you are good and forgiving.

Reading II

Rom 8:26-27

Brothers and sisters: The Spirit comes to the aid of our weakness; for we do not know how to pray as we ought, but the Spirit himself intercedes with inexpressible groanings. And the one who searches hearts knows what is the intention of the Spirit, because he intercedes for the holy ones according to God's will.

Gospel

Mt 13:24-33

Jesus proposed another parable to the crowds, saying: "The kingdom of heaven may be likened to a man who sowed good seed in his field. While everyone was asleep his enemy came and sowed weeds all through the wheat, and then went off.

When the crop grew and bore fruit, the weeds appeared as well. The slaves of the householder came to him and said, 'Master, did you not sow good seed in your field? Where have the weeds come from?' He answered, 'An enemy has done this.' His slaves said to him, 'Do you want us to go and pull them up?' He replied, 'No, if you pull up the weeds you might uproot the wheat along with them.

Let them grow together until harvest; then at harvest time I will say to the harvesters, "First collect the weeds and tie them in bundles for burning; but gather the wheat into my barn."

He proposed another parable to them. "The kingdom of heaven is like a mustard seed that a person took and sowed in a field. It is the smallest of all the seeds, yet when full-grown it is the largest of plants.

It becomes a large bush, and the 'birds of the sky come and dwell in its branches.'"

He spoke to them another parable. "The kingdom of heaven is like yeast that a woman took and mixed with three measures of wheat flour until the whole batch was leavened."

All these things Jesus spoke to the crowds in parables. He spoke to them only in parables, to fulfill what had been said through the prophet: I will open my mouth in parables, I will announce what has lain hidden from the foundation of the world.

Then, dismissing the crowds, he went into the house.

His disciples approached him and said, "Explain to us the parable of the weeds in the field." He said in reply, "He who sows good seed is the Son of Man, the field is the world, the good seed the children of the kingdom. The weeds are the children of the evil one, and the enemy who sows them is the devil. The harvest is the end of the age, and the harvesters are angels. Just as weeds are collected and burned up with fire, so will it be at the end of the age. The Son of Man will send his angels, and they will collect out of his kingdom all who cause others to sin and all evildoers. They will throw them into the fiery furnace, where there will be wailing and grinding of teeth. Then the righteous will shine like the sun in the kingdom of their Father. Whoever has ears ought to hear."

Reflection

On the day of the harvest the straw is set aside,
the chaff is blown away by the wind,
and the weeds are consigned to the flames.
But the wheat, like sacks of gold,
is gathered into the barn.
Lord, on the day of death,
the harvest of my life will be poured out before you,
wheat and chaff and weeds together.
Let your wise hand sift through it;
then keep what is worth keeping,
and with the breath of your kindness,
blow the rest away.
