ONE WAY IN...AND OUT

For the past month, a suggested change in car parking for our weekend Masses appeared in our weekly bulletins. Parishioners were invited to discuss the suggestion and then communicate their wisdom to Fr Noel. Only one parishioner did, who asked that the 6pm Mass be included in the proposed change. The suggestion came from the Working Bee Group who raised the issue as a health and safety concern. There not having been any objections, the following will apply as from 20-21 August:

“For the 6pm and 10.30am Masses cars enter the large car park in the usual way. Ten minutes before Mass finishes the car park signs will be changed so that the present entry gate becomes also the exit gate. Cars will not be permitted to exit via what is now the exit gate. It will be exclusively for pedestrians.

Parishioners who park in front of the Memorial Stations of the Cross wall are requested to back in, thereby making exiting easier and safer.

PLEASE NOTE THERE IS A 10KM SPEED LIMIT OPERATING AT ALL TIMES.”

PORT PHILLIP PRISON

Fr Noel is celebrating two Masses at Port Phillip Prison on Tuesday 9 August. Therefore there will be a Communion Service in lieu of our usual 9.20am Tuesday Mass. Parishioners are encouraged to come to the Communion Service and pray for victims of crime, the prisoners and their families.

At the end of the 9 week program, we can redeem our collection of points against a choice of more than 7,000 educational resources. The list is extensive and includes library books, classroom equipment, art & craft materials and much, much more...

There's no limit to the number of points we can collect, so your participation will really make a difference. The more points we earn, the more resources we can order!

Next Week's Reading - 14th August, 2011

20th Sunday in Ordinary Time - Year A

Reading 1

Is 56:1, 6-7

Thus says the LORD: Observe what is right, do what is just; for my salvation is about to come, my justice, about to be revealed.

The foreigners who join themselves to the LORD, ministering to him, loving the name of the LORD, and becoming his servants— all who keep the sabbath free from profanation and hold to my covenant, them I will bring to my holy mountain and make joyful in my house of prayer; their burnt offerings and sacrifices will be acceptable on my altar, for my house shall be called a house of prayer for all peoples.

Responsorial Psalm

67:2-3, 5, 6, 8

R. (4) O God, let all the nations praise you!

Reading II

Rom 11:13-15, 29-32

Brothers and sisters: I am speaking to you Gentiles. Inasmuch as I am the apostle to the Gentiles, I glory in my ministry in order to make my race jealous and thus save some of them. For if their rejection is the reconciliation of the world, what will their acceptance be but life from the dead?

For the gifts and the call of God are irrevocable. Just as you once disobeyed God but have now received mercy because of their disobedience, so they have now disobeyed in order that, by virtue of the mercy shown to you, they too may now receive mercy. For God delivered all to disobedience, that he might have mercy upon all.

Gospel

Mt 15:21-28

At that time, Jesus withdrew to the region of Tyre and Sidon. And behold, a Canaanite woman of that district came and called out, "Have pity on me, Lord, Son of David! My daughter is tormented by a demon." But Jesus did not say a word in answer to her. Jesus' disciples came and asked him, "Send her away, for she keeps calling out after us." He said in reply, "I was sent only to the lost sheep of the house of Israel." But the woman came and did Jesus homage, saying, "Lord, help me." He said in reply, "It is not right to take the food of the children and throw it to the dogs." She said, "Please, Lord, for even the dogs eat the scraps that fall from the table of their masters." Then Jesus said to her in reply, "O woman, great is your faith! Let it be done for you as you wish." And the woman's daughter was healed from that hour.

Reflection

An Irish Wish

*God be good to you in all your days.
God be kind to you in all your ways.
God give strength to you when crosses lean,
God send light to you, the clouds between.
God give peace to you in times of strife,
God bless everything that fills your life.
God send joy to you when grief is o'er.
God make way for you at Heaven's door.*
