PARISH MEETING NIGHT

This Wednesday 7 September is our next Parish Meeting Night. We gather for prayer in the church at 7.15pm, have individual group meetings between 7.30pm and 8.30pm, followed by supper at 8.30pm. ### HOW DO YOU PRONOUNCE IT?

In the new Mass texts the second Eucharistic Prayer says in part "You are indeed Holy, O Lord, the fount of all holiness". How is "fount" pronounced? Is it "font" as in "Font of all knowledge"? or is it fount as in "fountain"? In other words is the "u" pronounced or not?

I have asked several people and consulted a couple of dictionaries, however it remains unclear to me.

If you can help please contact Fr Noel.

PILGRIMS RETURN

It was great to see Richelle Bunag, Mary Ann Lapid, and Josephine Medilo at our 10.30am Mass last Sunday. Their safe return from Madrid where they represented our parish at the World Youth Day was an answer to our prayers. They will speak at all Masses next weekend so we might share their experiences.

ANNUAL LEAVE

Fr Noel is going on annual leave from 19 September.

PARKING

Just a reminder that for our 6pm Saturday and 10.30am Sunday Masses the entry gate to the big car park becomes also the exit gate. That is the gate nearest to Movelle Primary School. When exiting if you are turning left into Gum Road keep in the left lane. If turning right into Gum Road keep in the right lane.

STEP UP

Last Saturday morning our new Step Up group ran a three hour session to help parishioners looking for work. Twelve parishioners participated along with four members of the Step Up Group. It was most helpful for the participants.

The Step Up group intend to have more of these sessions.

The next session is 24th September from 9am -11am.

In last week's Big Bulletin there was a flyer describing how the group can help parishioners. Simply fill out the form, hand it into the Parish Office and a member of the Step Up group will contact you.

Should you know of any job vacancies at your work place please contact the Parish Office.

Next Week's Reading – 11th September, 2011

24th Sunday in Ordinary Time – Year A

Reading 1

Sir 27:30-28:7

Wrath and anger are hateful things,
yet the sinner hugs them tight.
The vengeful will suffer the LORD's vengeance,
for he remembers their sins in detail.
Forgive your neighbor's injustice;
then when you pray, your own sins will be forgiven.
Could anyone nourish anger against another and expect healing from the LORD?
Could anyone refuse mercy to another like himself,
can he seek pardon for his own sins?
If one who is but flesh cherishes wrath,
who will forgive his sins?
Remember your last days, set enmity aside;
remember death and decay, and cease from sin!
Think of the commandments, hate not your neighbor;
remember the Most High's covenant, and overlook faults.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 103:1-2, 3-4, 9-10, 11-12

R. (8) The Lord is kind and merciful, slow to anger, and rich in compassion.

Reading 2

Rom 14:7-9

Brothers and sisters:
None of us lives for oneself, and no one dies for oneself.
For if we live, we live for the Lord,
and if we die, we die for the Lord;
so then, whether we live or die, we are the Lord's.
For this is why Christ died and came to life,
that he might be Lord of both the dead and the living.

Gospel

Mt 18:21-35

Peter approached Jesus and asked him,
"Lord, if my brother sins against me,
how often must I forgive?
As many as seven times?"
Jesus answered, "I say to you, not seven times but seventy-seven times.
That is why the kingdom of heaven may be likened to a king
who decided to settle accounts with his servants.
When he began the accounting,
a debtor was brought before him who owed him a huge amount.
Since he had no way of paying it back,
his master ordered him to be sold,
along with his wife, his children, and all his property,
in payment of the debt.
At that, the servant fell down, did him homage, and said,
'Be patient with me, and I will pay you back in full.'
Moved with compassion the master of that servant
let him go and forgave him the loan.

When that servant had left, he found one of his fellow servants
who owed him a much smaller amount.
He seized him and started to choke him, demanding,
'Pay back what you owe.'
Falling to his knees, his fellow servant begged him,
'Be patient with me, and I will pay you back.'
But he refused.
Instead, he had the fellow servant put in prison
until he paid back the debt.
Now when his fellow servants saw what had happened,
they were deeply disturbed, and went to their master
and reported the whole affair.
His master summoned him and said to him, 'You wicked
servant!
I forgave you your entire debt because you begged me to.
Should you not have had pity on your fellow servant,
as I had pity on you?'
Then in anger his master handed him over to the torturers until he should pay back the whole debt.
So will my heavenly Father do to you,
unless each of you forgives your brother from your heart."

Reflection

Forgiveness

*When we forgive we free ourselves of the burden of bitterness,
and we free the other person of the burden of guilt.
But our forgiveness must come from the heart,
which means it must be true, sincere, and warm.
A cold forgiveness is not much use.
Forgiveness should start now.
Putting it off only deepens the wound
prolongs bitterness, and postpones happiness.
Life is short, time is fleeting.
Today is the day to forgive.
Lord, deliver us from the poison of bitterness,
and give us the grace to forgive from the heart
those who have offended us.
Then we will know the warmth of your forgiveness.*
