COFFEE WITHDRAWAL!

Next weekend at all Masses the children from Government schools will be celebrating their First Communion. Given the restrictions that the hall renovation places upon us there will not be coffee served after the Saturday 6pm and Sunday 9am Masses. However coffee will be served after the 10.30am Mass. Parishioners at that Mass are asked to be patient while the tables and chairs are arranged.

FOUNT

In last weekend's bulletin Fr Noel asked how the word "fount" should be pronounced. The word occurs in the new Mass texts for the second Eucharistic Prayer. Thank you to the three parishioners who responded, who were unanimous that it should be pronounced fount as in "fountain".

BIG BULLETIN

The deadline for the September Big Bulletin in Friday 16 September. Parish Groups and individual parishioners are invited to submit any news, article, or items of interest by that date.

ANNUAL LEAVE

Fr Noel is going on annual leave from 19 September.

PARKING

Just a reminder that for our 6pm Saturday and 10.30am Sunday Masses the entry gate to the big car park becomes also the exit gate. That is the gate nearest to Movelles Primary School.

When exiting if you are turning left into Gum Road keep in the left lane. If turning right into Gum Road keep in the right lane.

CHILDREN'S LITURGY

During the hall renovations it is not possible to have Children's Liturgy at any of our Masses. How might we more engage the children during this time? Suggestions are always welcome.

CONGRATULATIONS

Congratulations are extended to Tony and Joyce Zahra who are celebrating their 50th wedding anniversary this weekend. May God continue to bless you in your marriage, in your family, in your friends, and in your many ministries in our parish.

Child Protection Week

Lord,

You asked that the little children be allowed to come to you;

For it is such as these that the kingdom of God belongs.

You entrust them to the care and protection of our communities of faith.

Guide us as we strive to ensure that our Catholic communities provide a safe environment for each child.

We pray especially for all those who have been harmed in their childhood.

Give them courage in facing the past and lead them to your healing protection.

Next Week's Reading - 18th September, 2011

25th Sunday in Ordinary Time - Year A

Reading 1

Is 55:6-9

Seek the LORD while he may be found,
call him while he is near.
Let the scoundrel forsake his way,
and the wicked his thoughts;
let him turn to the LORD for mercy;
to our God, who is generous in forgiving.
For my thoughts are not your thoughts,
nor are your ways my ways, says the LORD.
As high as the heavens are above the earth,
so high are my ways above your ways
and my thoughts above your thoughts.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 145:2-3, 8-9, 17-18

R. (18a) The Lord is near to all who call upon him.

Reading 2

Phil 1:20C-24, 27A

Brothers and sisters:
Christ will be magnified in my body, whether by life or by death.
For to me life is Christ, and death is gain.
If I go on living in the flesh,
that means fruitful labor for me.
And I do not know which I shall choose.
I am caught between the two.
I long to depart this life and be with Christ,
for that is far better.
Yet that I remain in the flesh
is more necessary for your benefit.

Only, conduct yourselves in a way worthy of the gospel of Christ.

Gospel

Mt 20:1-16A

Jesus told his disciples this parable:
"The kingdom of heaven is like a landowner
who went out at dawn to hire laborers for his vineyard.
After agreeing with them for the usual daily wage,
he sent them into his vineyard.
Going out about nine o'clock,
the landowner saw others standing idle in the marketplace,
and he said to them, 'You too go into my vineyard,
and I will give you what is just.'
So they went off.
And he went out again around noon,
and around three o'clock, and did likewise.
Going out about five o'clock,
the landowner found others standing around, and said to them,
'Why do you stand here idle all day?'

They answered, 'Because no one has hired us.'
He said to them, 'You too go into my vineyard.'
When it was evening the owner of the vineyard said to his foreman,
'Summon the laborers and give them their pay,
beginning with the last and ending with the first.'
When those who had started about five o'clock came,
each received the usual daily wage.
So when the first came, they thought that they would receive more,
but each of them also got the usual wage.
And on receiving it they grumbled against the landowner,
saying,
'These last ones worked only one hour,
and you have made them equal to us,
who bore the day's burden and the heat.'
He said to one of them in reply,
'My friend, I am not cheating you.
Did you not agree with me for the usual daily wage?
Take what is yours and go.
What if I wish to give this last one the same as you?
Or am I not free to do as I wish with my own money?
Are you envious because I am generous?'
Thus, the last will be first, and the first will be last."

Reflection

*'My thoughts are not your thoughts,
nor are my ways your ways.
As high as the heavens are above the earth,
so high are my ways above your ways,
my thoughts above your thoughts,' says the Lord.
How small our thoughts can be,
and how poor our ways of seeing and judging.
We think miserly thoughts, and act in miserly ways,
Why?
Because we have small minds and small hearts.
Lord, open our minds and enlarge our hearts,
so that we think more like you,
and act more like you.
Let us not begrudge your goodness to others,
knowing that we too are undeserving of your favours,
and stand more in need of your mercy than of your justice.
Amen.*
