REFLECTIONS BY THE HOURGLASS

As reported in last weekend's Big Bulletin there is an opportunity coming up for those Proclaiming God's Word (and any Resurrection parishioner) to deepen their understanding of the Sunday Readings. During November and December our Thursday Mass will move from 7.30pm to 7pm. At 7.30pm Fr Noel will lead a discussion for the following Sunday's Readings. The series will be held in the MacKillop Room and the time will be measured by an hourglass.

WILL YOU WRITE?

Ever thought of writing an article for the Big Bulletin? Why not give it a try? It can be on anything, the parish, an event, your family, or perhaps just about you. It is articles such as these that enhance our monthly Big Bulletin.

The deadline for this month's Big Bulletin is Friday 21 October. Get your article into the Parish Office by that date or better still send it direct to bulletin.kingspark@cam.org.au

PARKING

Just a reminder that for our 6pm Saturday and 10.30am Sunday Masses the entry gate to the big car park becomes also the exit gate. That is the gate nearest to Movelle Primary School.

When exiting if you are turning left into Gum Road keep in the left lane. If turning right into Gum Road keep in the right lane. Remember that a 10km speed limit covers all our property.

NOT TOO TIGHT!

Please don't squeeze that extra hymn book into the hymn book racks. The reason is simple. When hymn books are pulled out by their "spines" they tear and break.

RECONCILIATION WORKSHOP,

All parish children preparing for the Sacrament of Reconciliation later this year are required to attend our Family Workshop held in the Church on 17th October at 4pm or 7pm.

NATIONAL CHURCH LIFE SURVEY 2011

Our Parish will participate in the National Church Life Survey 2011 in November. So watch this space!!

INTERVIEW WORKSHOP

Please note that our next workshop will be held on 8/10/11 in the MacKillop Room starting at 9.00am.

There will be something for the men too. After dessert, you could go for a walk around the Reserve or feed the swans by the lake, or have a game of Bocce, or just bask in the sun. Next Week's Reading - 9th October, 2011

28th Sunday in Ordinary Time - Year A

Reading 1

Is 25:6-10A

On this mountain the LORD of hosts will provide for all peoples
a feast of rich food and choice wines, juicy, rich food and pure, choice wines.
On this mountain he will destroy the veil that veils all peoples,
the web that is woven over all nations;
he will destroy death forever.
The Lord GOD will wipe away
the tears from every face;
the reproach of his people he will remove from the whole earth; for the LORD has spoken.
On that day it will be said:
"Behold our God, to whom we looked to save us!
This is the LORD for whom we looked;
let us rejoice and be glad that he has saved us!"
For the hand of the LORD will rest on this mountain.

The rest laid hold of his servants,
mistreated them, and killed them.
The king was enraged and sent his troops,
destroyed those murderers, and burned their city.
Then he said to his servants, 'The feast is ready,
but those who were invited were not worthy to come.
Go out, therefore, into the main roads and invite to the feast whomever you find.'
The servants went out into the streets and gathered all they found, bad and good alike,
and the hall was filled with guests.
But when the king came in to meet the guests,
he saw a man there not dressed in a wedding garment.
The king said to him, 'My friend, how is it that you came in here without a wedding garment?'
But he was reduced to silence.
Then the king said to his attendants, 'Bind his hands and feet, and cast him into the darkness outside, where there will be wailing and grinding of teeth.'
Many are invited, but few are chosen."

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 23:1-3A, 3B-4, 5, 6

R. (6cd) I shall live in the house of the Lord all the days of my life.

Reading 2

Phil 4:12-14, 19-20

Brothers and sisters:
I know how to live in humble circumstances;
I know also how to live with abundance.
In every circumstance and in all things
I have learned the secret of being well fed and of going hungry,
of living in abundance and of being in need.
I can do all things in him who strengthens me.
Still, it was kind of you to share in my distress.

My God will fully supply whatever you need,
in accord with his glorious riches in Christ Jesus.
To our God and Father, glory forever and ever. Amen.

Gospel

Mt 22:1-14

Jesus again in reply spoke to the chief priests and elders of the people
in parables, saying,
"The kingdom of heaven may be likened to a king
who gave a wedding feast for his son.
He dispatched his servants
to summon the invited guests to the feast,
but they refused to come.
A second time he sent other servants, saying,
"Tell those invited: "Behold, I have prepared my banquet,
my calves and fattened cattle are killed,
and everything is ready; come to the feast."
Some ignored the invitation and went away,
one to his farm, another to his business.

Reflection

God's Call

*God's call comes to us in many ways and at many different levels.
However, his call is not so much a voice as a tug at our hearts, which we feel at quiet and reflective moments in our lives.
He is calling us to a deeper and more authentic life.
He is calling us into intimacy with himself.
He is calling us into community with others.
At a death he will call us into eternal life.
To accept means to admit our need.
Jesus said, "Woe to you who are full now,
for you will go hungry.
But blessed are you who are hungry now,
for you will be filled."
A sense of something missing in our lives
is not a curse but a blessing.
A spiritual hunger
is God's way of inviting us to his banquet.*
