REFLECTIONS BY THE HOURGLASS

Those parishioners who are Proclaimers of the Word might consider gathering with Fr Noel each Thursday night after our 7pm Mass in the MacKillop Room to discuss the following weekend's Readings. Whilst it is hoped that this will lead to better proclamation, any Resurrection parishioner is welcome. You are requested to read the Readings beforehand (they are printed in our weekly and monthly bulletins).

WORKING BEE

Our fourth and final working bee for the year is scheduled for Saturday 27 November between 8am and 12 noon.

That weekend is also the beginning of Advent. It is important that our church/school/grounds are looking their best for this new liturgical year. Can you come?

WHAT IS A TALENT?

Have you read next week's Gospel? It is printed on the third page of this bulletin. It comes from the twenty-fifth chapter of Matthew's Gospel.

How might you use your talent to help others? Next weekend you will be given an opportunity.

PARKING

Just a reminder that for our 6pm Saturday and 10.30am Sunday Masses the entry gate to the big car park becomes also the exit gate. That is the gate nearest to Movelle Primary School.

BUILDING WORKS UPDATE

Over the past 4 weeks the architect, soil engineer and structural engineer have been liaising about the slab floor. The initial specifications were for 500 ton of crushed rock to be used as a base. After much deliberation between the three parties they finally reached a consensus (this is why no work has been able to be done during the last 4 weeks). One positive outcome was a saving of $16,000 because of this change. The plans are now back at council as there is a change to the permit issued. Works are underway again.

SENIORS - NOVEMBER

No In-house in November due to renovations to the Hall.

2011 NATIONAL CHURCH LIFE SURVEY

Resurrection Parish is involved or find out more?

www.2011ncls.org.au

Local Churches Choose To Take Part

To Shape the national snapshot of the whole church

Each National Church Life Survey creates an historical snapshot of Australian churches. Every church, of all shapes and sizes, is needed to contribute to the truest possible picture of the Australian church.

To shape the denomination's profile

It is a unique opportunity for church leaders to listen to their people on a range of key issues and to receive an overview of denominational health.

To shape the future of local churches

Every church attender has a voice.

A Church Life Survey captures attenders' discernments about vision, direction and passions for growth.

Identifying the current strengths in a church can be an important first step in effectively planning for the growth and vitality of a church.

Participating churches receive integrated streams of resources based on survey results in the areas of Church Vitality, Leadership and Community.

Next Week's Reading - 13th November, 2011
33rd Sunday in Ordinary Time - Year

Reading 1 Prv 31:10-13, 19-20, 30-31

When one finds a worthy wife, her value is far beyond pearls. Her husband, entrusting his heart to her, has an unfailing prize. She brings him good, and not evil, all the days of her life. She obtains wool and flax and works with loving hands. She puts her hands to the distaff, and her fingers ply the spindle. She reaches out her hands to the poor, and extends her arms to the needy. Charm is deceptive and beauty fleeting; the woman who fears the LORD is to be praised. Give her a reward for her labors, and let her works praise her at the city gates.

Responsorial Psalm Ps 128:1-2, 3, 4-5

Blessed are those who fear the Lord.

Reading 2 Thes 5:1-6

Concerning times and seasons, brothers and sisters, you have no need for anything to be written to you. For you yourselves know very well that the day of the Lord will come like a thief at night. When people are saying, "Peace and security," then sudden disaster comes upon them, like labor pains upon a pregnant woman, and they will not escape.

But you, brothers and sisters, are not in darkness, for that day to overtake you like a thief. For all of you are children of the light and children of the day. We are not of the night or of darkness. Therefore, let us not sleep as the rest do, but let us stay alert and sober.

Gospel Mt 25:14-30

Jesus told his disciples this parable:
"A man going on a journey called in his servants and entrusted his possessions to them. To one he gave five talents; to another, two; to a third, one-- to each according to his ability. Then he went away. Immediately the one who received five talents went and traded with them, and made another five. Likewise, the one who received two made another two. But the man who received one went off and dug a hole in the ground and buried his master's money.

After a long time the master of those servants came back and settled accounts with them. The one who had received five talents came forward bringing the additional five. He said, 'Master, you gave me five talents. See, I have made five more.' His master said to him, 'Well done, my good and faithful servant. Since you were faithful in small matters, I will give you great responsibilities.

Come, share your master's joy.'

Then the one who had received two talents also came forward and said, 'Master, you gave me two talents.

See, I have made two more.'

His master said to him, 'Well done, my good and faithful servant. Since you were faithful in small matters, I will give you great responsibilities. Come, share your master's joy.'

Then the one who had received the one talent came forward and said, 'Master, I knew you were a demanding person, harvesting where you did not plant and gathering where you did not scatter; so out of fear I went off and buried your talent in the ground.

Here it is back.' His master said to him in reply, 'You wicked, lazy servant! So you knew that I harvest where I did not plant and gather where I did not scatter?

Should you not then have put my money in the bank so that I could have got it back with interest on my return? Now then! Take the talent from him and give it to the one with ten. For to everyone who has, more will be given and he will grow rich; but from the one who has not, even what he has will be taken away.

And throw this useless servant into the darkness outside, where there will be wailing and grinding of teeth."

Reflection

The cost of talent

*I have not the fine audacity of men
Who have mastered the pen
Or the purse.*

*The complexes of many slaves are in my verse.
When I straighten my shoulders
to look at the world boldly
I see talent coldly*

Damning me to stooped attrition.

*Mine was a beggar's mission
To dreams of beauty I should have been born blind.
I should have been content to walk behind
Watching the reflection of God's delight:*
