If you can your presence would certainly be appreciated. You can make a difference. There are plenty of jobs such as painting, pruning, carpentry, cleaning, sweeping, mulching, clearing drains and gutters, to name just a few.

It would be great if you can bring with you wheelbarrows, wipper-snippers, rakes, shovels, carpentry tools, etc.

You may be interested to know the numbers at our Masses last weekend:

Saturday 6pm	496 of whom 80 arrived after Mass commenced
Sunday 9am	367 of whom 120 arrived after Mass commenced
Sunday 10.30am	889 of whom 256 arrived after Mass commenced

PENTECOST IS COMING

Pentecost this year is celebrated on 12 June. The first Reading on that day is from the second chapter of the Acts of the Apostles where we hear about Parthians, Medes, and Elamites among others hearing the Apostles speaking in their own language.

Resurrection has a rich cultural mix of parishioners from many countries.

Will you help celebrate our diversity wearing national dress to the Pentecost Mass this year? What do you think about having some of our Readings in different languages?

PREP ENROLMENTS

Prep enrolments for 2012 are open.

If you are a parishioner with a child starting school next year; even if you already have other children at the school, you need to enroll. Don't miss out, enroll early!

CONFIRMATION

This Monday 9 May there will be two Confirmation workshops. The first session is at 4pm the second is at 7pm. It is expected that children and their parents will participate in one session. This is an important step towards Confirmation which will be celebrated this year on either Friday 29 July or Friday 5 August.

BIBLE PROJECT

Do you have any spare time? Do the Gospels fascinate you? Would you like to help Fr Noel with a project? If so would you please contact him.

BIG BULLETIN

STEWARDSHIP

Our Parish Stewardship Program begins in 2 weeks time. It is a time for us to look at Christian Stewardship as a way of living – a time for us to look at returning to God a portion of our worldly goods in thanksgiving. Each of us has something special to offer and all parishioners and school parents are invited to join us during this special time. All parishioners are invited to attend our Parish Information Meeting on Thursday 26 May at 7.30pm in the Parish Hall. All welcome.

CAN YOU HELP? -STEWARDSHIP WORKSHOP

There will be a working bee on Friday 27 May 9.30am (after 8.30am Mass) in the MacKillip Room Community. If you are able to help please come along to fold and prepare letters for our Parish families, have some fun & a cuppa! The more the merrier and the quicker!

STEWARDSHIP PRAYER

Lord, we thank you for calling us to be your Church, to further your Kingdom here on earth.
You give us all we have and all we need.
Unite us to you and to one another.
Grant us the wisdom to recognise the depth and truth of our own potential.
Help us to share our time, our talents and our treasure so we may build for the future of our Parish and our world.
Since you have blessed us in so many ways, help us return these gifts with grateful hearts.
We ask this, through Christ our Lord, Amen.

Next Week's Reading - 15th May

4th Sunday of Easter - Year A

Reading 1

Acts 2:14a,36-41

Then Peter stood up with the Eleven, raised his voice, and proclaimed: "Let the whole house of Israel know for certain that God has made both Lord and Christ, this Jesus whom you crucified." Now when they heard this, they were cut to the heart, and they asked Peter and the other apostles, "What are we to do, my brothers?" Peter said to them, "Repent and be baptized, every one of you, in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins; and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. For the promise is made to you and to your children and to all those far off, whomever the Lord our God will call." He testified with many other arguments, and was exhorting them, "Save yourselves from this corrupt generation." Those who accepted his message were baptized, and about three thousand persons were added that day.

Responsorial Psalm

23:1-3a,3b4,5,6

The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.

Reading 2

1 Pt 2:20b-25

Beloved:
If you are patient when you suffer for doing what is good, this is a grace before God. For to this you have been called, because Christ also suffered for you, leaving you an example that you should follow in his footsteps.
He committed no sin, and no deceit was found in his mouth.
When he was insulted, he returned no insult; when he suffered, he did not threaten; instead, he handed himself over to the one who judges justly.
He himself bore our sins in his body upon the cross, so that, free from sin, we might live for righteousness. By his wounds you have been healed. For you had gone astray like sheep, but you have now returned to the shepherd and guardian of your souls.

Gospel

Jn 10:1-10

Jesus said:
"Amen, amen, I say to you, whoever does not enter a sheepfold through the gate but climbs over elsewhere is a thief and a robber. But whoever enters through the gate is the shepherd of the sheep. The gatekeeper opens it for him, and the sheep hear his voice, as the shepherd calls his own sheep by name and leads them out. When he has driven out all his own, he walks ahead of them, and the sheep follow him, because they recognize his voice. But they will not follow a stranger; they will run away from him, because they do not recognize the voice of strangers." Although Jesus used this figure of speech, the Pharisees did not realize what he was trying to tell them. So Jesus said again, "Amen, amen, I say to you, I am the gate for the sheep. All who came before me are thieves and robbers, but the sheep did not listen to them. I am the gate. Whoever enters through me will be saved, and will come in and go out and find pasture. A thief comes only to steal and slaughter and destroy; I came so that they might have life and have it more abundantly."

Reflection Compassion & Healing

Compassion is not learned without suffering. Unless we have suffered and wept, we really don't understand what compassion is, not can we comfort someone who is suffering. Unless we have walked in darkness, we can't help wanderers to find their way. But if we have suffered we become pathfinders for others. And it is by reaching out to others that we ourselves are healed. Jesus bore the marks of our violent world on his body. Those wounds were the proof of his love. They were the mortal wounds the Good Shepherd picked up in caring for his sheep. The wounds of Jesus are a source of consolation, courage, and hope to us in our sufferings. By his wounds we are healed.
