THANKSGIVING

LAST WEEK

THANKSGIVING:	$ 8,049
NUMBER OF ENVELOPES:	389
PRESBYTERY:	$ 436

We pray in thanksgiving for all those who have died recently.

We pray for Josephine Buttigieg, Joseph Buttigieg, Luis Rojas Rojas, Antonia & John Attard, Lewis Camilleri, Charles Calleja, Leon Strembeckys, Kerry Brady, Anne Fagan and all those whose anniversary occurs at about this time.

Please also pray for Pablo Crisostomo and Marcela Pedralvez and all those who are sick.

GUIDELINES

Guidelines for the ministries of Hospitality, Communion, and Proclamation of the Word are available for collection from the Parish Office. If you committed to one of these ministries would you kindly pick up your guidelines. They are in the pigeon-holes under your surname.

PARISH MEETING NIGHT

This Wednesday 6 April is our Parish Meeting Night. It is the night when all Parish Groups come together in the church for prayer at 7.15pm. Individual groups meet between 7.30pm and 8.30pm. Supper is enjoyed at 8.30; this month our Sudanese Welcome Group and Bulletin Group are rostered on for supper.

CONFESSION/PENANCE/RECONCILIATION

These are the three almost interchangeable words referring to the Sacrament of forgiveness. We will celebrate the 2nd Rite of Reconciliation on Tuesday 19 April at 7.15pm. There will be 17 Priests assisting Fr Noel. In the parish bulletin on Passion Sunday there will be a four-page insert entitled "Living Easter Anew". It is written by Fr Elio Capra sdb. It is attractively presented and would be enormously beneficial to read on the eve of Holy Week.

PALM BRANCHES

We are still in need of both small and large palm branches for Passion (Palm Sunday). If you can help please leave your name at the Parish Office or Welcome Desk.

AUSTRALIAN CATHOLICS

The Easter edition of Australian Catholics is available free of charge to Resurrection parishioners. It is a high quality Jesuit magazine. This month has an article on "Parish in the 21st Century". Available in the narthex.

BIG BULLETIN DEADLINE

The closing date is 8th April 2011 to get articles, information etc. into the big Bulletin deadline for April.

PREP ENROLMENTS 2012

2012 Prep Enrolments open next Term on Monday 2nd May. Application forms can be obtained from the school office from that day. Please complete and return the enrolment application form together with Birth, Baptism, Visa (if born overseas) and Immunisation Certificates as soon as possible. Your child needs to be 5 years old by 30th April 2012 to begin Prep in 2012. Applications close on Friday 3rd June.

Enquiries Welcome: please phone 9366 7022.

MAINTENANCE POSITION-JUNE & JULY 2011

Resurrection School has a School Maintenance/Handyman position available during the months of June & July. Hours and times are flexible. Please contact the Principal (John Kremers) on 9366-7022 for further details.

MOVIE NIGHT

The Social Group is holding a movie night. We thought we would have a story related to Easter, as it is during Lent.

"THE GREATEST STORY EVER TOLD"

WHEN: 9th APRIL, 2011 at 7.30pm (after 6.00pm Mass)

WHERE: RESURRECTION HALL

The Maltese community will be having a sausage sizzle after Mass on this day to raise funds for their Maltese Day, so you can buy your dinner before the movie, and during intermission (the movie is quite long) they will also be selling some yummy goodies! Come and join us for a fun night out, forget about cooking dinner and let us do that for you. Bring your family and friends. Tea and coffee supplied. No bookings are necessary, just come and join us! For further information please contact Nadia Young on 9449 0976.

Next Week's Readings – 10th April

5th Sunday of Lent – Year A

Reading 1

Ez 37:12-14

Thus says the Lord GOD: O my people, I will open your graves and have you rise from them, and bring you back to the land of Israel. Then you shall know that I am the LORD, when I open your graves and have you rise from them, O my people! I will put my spirit in you that you may live, and I will settle you upon your land; thus you shall know that I am the LORD. I have promised, and I will do it, says the LORD.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 130:1-2, 3-4, 5-6, 7-8

R. (7) With the Lord there is mercy and fullness of redemption.

Reading 2

Rom 8:8-11

Brothers and sisters: Those who are in the flesh cannot please God. But you are not in the flesh; on the contrary, you are in the spirit, if only the Spirit of God dwells in you. Whoever does not have the Spirit of Christ does not belong to him. But if Christ is in you, although the body is dead because of sin, the spirit is alive because of righteousness. If the Spirit of the one who raised Jesus from the dead dwells in you, the one who raised Christ from the dead will give life to your mortal bodies also, through his Spirit dwelling in you.

Gospel

Jn 11:1-45 or 11:3-7, 17, 20-27, 33b-45

Now a man was ill, Lazarus from Bethany, the village of Mary and her sister Martha. Mary was the one who had anointed the Lord with perfumed oil and dried his feet with her hair; it was her brother Lazarus who was ill. So the sisters sent word to him saying, "Master, the one you love is ill." When Jesus heard this he said, "This illness is not to end in death, but is for the glory of God, that the Son of God may be glorified through it." Now Jesus loved Martha and her sister and Lazarus. So when he heard that he was ill, he remained for two days in the place where he was. Then after this he said to his disciples, "Let us go back to Judea." The disciples said to him, "Rabbi, the Jews were just trying to stone you, and you want to go back there?" Jesus answered, "Are there not twelve hours in a day? If one walks during the day, he does not stumble, because he sees the light of this world. But if one walks at night, he stumbles, because the light is not in him." He said this, and then told them, "Our friend Lazarus is asleep, but I am going to awaken him." So the disciples said to him, "Master, if he is asleep, he will be saved." But Jesus was talking about his death, while they thought that he meant ordinary sleep. So then Jesus said to them clearly, "Lazarus has died. And I am glad for you that I was not there, that you may believe. Let us go to him." So Thomas, called Didymus, said to his fellow disciples, "Let us also go to die with him." When Jesus arrived, he found that Lazarus had already been in the tomb for four days. Now Bethany was near Jerusalem, only about two miles away. And many of the Jews had come to Martha and Mary to comfort them about their brother. When Martha heard that Jesus was coming, she went to meet him; but Mary sat at home. Martha said to Jesus, "Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died. But even now I know that whatever you ask of God, God will give you." Jesus said to her, "Your brother will rise." Martha said to him, "I know he will rise, in the resurrection on the last day." Jesus told her, "I am the resurrection and the life; whoever believes in me, even if he dies, will live, and everyone who lives and believes in me will never die. Do you believe this?" She said to him, "Yes, Lord. I have come to believe that you are the Christ, the Son of God, the one who is coming into the world." When she had said this, she went and called her sister Mary secretly, saying, "The teacher is here and is asking for you." As soon as she heard this, she rose quickly and went to him. For Jesus had not yet come into the village, but was still where Martha had met him. So when the Jews who were with her in the house comforting her saw Mary get up quickly and go out, they followed her, presuming that she was going to the tomb to weep there. When Mary came to where Jesus was and saw him, she fell at his feet and said to him, "Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died." When Jesus saw her weeping and the Jews who had come with her weeping, he became perturbed and deeply troubled, and said, "Where have you laid him?" They said to him, "Sir, come and see." And Jesus wept. So the Jews said, "See how he loved him." But some of them said, "Could not the one who opened the eyes of the blind man have done something so that this man would not have died?" So Jesus, perturbed again, came to the tomb. It was a cave, and a stone lay across it. Jesus said, "Take away the stone." Martha, the dead man's sister, said to him, "Lord, by now there will be a stench; he has been dead for four days." Jesus said to her, "Did I not tell you that if you believe you will see the glory of God?" So they took away the stone. And Jesus raised his eyes and said, "Father, I thank you for hearing me. I know that you always hear me; but because of the crowd here I have said this, that they may believe that you sent me." And when he had said this, He cried out in a loud voice, "Lazarus, come out!" The dead man came out, tied hand and foot with burial bands, and his face was wrapped in a cloth. So Jesus said to them, "Untie him and let him go." Now many of the Jews who had come to Mary and seen what he had done began to believe in him.

Reflection

Seeds of consolation

What can I say to you, my friend,
in your hour of grief?
Just a word from my heart.
In the midst of your sorrow seeds are being sown—
seeds of consolation, hope,
resignation, and even gratitude.
This winter will pass,
and spring will again visit the garden of your heart.
You will see these seeds grow,
blossom, and bear fruit.
Then your sorrow will turn into joy,
a joy no one will be able to take from you.
