A QUOTE

A couple of parishioners asked for the quote from the hymn Fr Noel used in his homily last Sunday. Here it is:

"Brighten the corner where you are
Brighten the corner where you are
Someone far from harbour you may guide across the bar
Brighten the corner where you are"

LENTEN REFLECTION GROUPS

Would you like to contemplate the presence of God in the reality of your life and experience? If you would or if you would like to do something different for this Lent; here is your opportunity. Parishioners are invited to join one of four Lenten Reflection Groups for the six weeks of Lent. We will begin in the week of Ash Wednesday. All groups will meet in our church.

The group leaders and the times are as follows:

Mondays beginning 7 March at 7pm (Mary Carabott)
Tuesdays beginning 8 March at 7pm (Yvonne Utoasega)
Wednesdays beginning 9 March at 1.30pm (Jane Caruana)
Wednesdays beginning 9 March at 7pm (Max Michel)

There is a sign up sheet in the narthex at all weekend Masses or in the Parish Office during the week. Ann Newland will also lead a group for school parents on Tuesday afternoons from 2.30pm to 3.10pm.

WILL YOU SERVE?

At this weekend's Masses you had the opportunity to commit to at least one Parish Ministry. Did you? Your choice ranged through forty-eight different Ministries. There is really something there for you. You will have another opportunity next week. Ask the Lord for guidance during the week. All parishioners who committed to a ministry in 2010 please note that it is necessary to complete a 2011 ministry sign-up form, as your commitment is for twelve months. New ministries commence as from the second week of March.

JUNIOR YOUTH MASS

Junior Youth will be holding a Youth Mass 6th March and will have a sausage sizzle to fund raise for their next event. Please support them in the endeavor. Thank you Y4JT

SAINT VALENTINE'S DAY

The feast of Saint Valentine is celebrated tomorrow 14 February. In the wider community the "Saint" is left out and Valentine's Day has become a day to tell someone special that you care. That you love them. It is a beautiful custom.

The Australian Bishops Commission, Catholic Marriage and Family Council has provided all parishes throughout Australia with a resource entitled "Be my Valentine". It gives some historical information on Saint Valentine. It offers a test that couples can do together. It also gives the web sites to a variety of enrichment, retreat and places where couples can go to for assistance. It is included in this week's bulletin.

OPENING SCHOOL MASS

This Tuesday (15 February) the special Mass for the opening of the school year will be celebrated at 9.15am. All Resurrection students and staff will participate and there is an invitation to parents and grandparents to join our Tuesday "regulars" for this Mass.

This Thursday (17 February) the Sacramental journey for all Year 3, 4, and 6 students begins. It is for both Resurrection and Government children and their families. It will begin with the celebration of Mass commencing at 7pm.

Parents need to decide now if this year is the right time for their child (children) to celebrate the Sacraments of Reconciliation (year 3), First Communion (year 4), or Confirmation (year 6).

Parents who wish their children to begin this wonderful journey are expected to participate in this special Mass.

This Mass will replace our regular 7.30pm Mass for this week only.

The first two sessions will be on Exploring the Mass and will look at its Scriptural Foundations and how it has evolved over the years. Presenters are Fr John Maher OMI, Parish Priest of Sunshine Parish & Head of the Philosophy Department at Catholic Theological College Fr Barry Hughes: Parish Priest of Albion Parish.

BIG BULLETIN

The deadline for February's Big Bulletin is this Friday 18 February.

Next Week's Readings – 20th February 7th Sunday in Ordinary Time – Year A

Reading 1

Lv 19:1-2, 17-18

The LORD said to Moses,
“Speak to the whole Israelite community and tell them:
Be holy, for I, the LORD, your God, am holy.
“You shall not bear hatred for your brother or sister in your heart.
Though you may have to reprove your fellow citizen,
do not incur sin because of him.
Take no revenge and cherish no grudge against any of your people.
You shall love your neighbor as yourself.
I am the LORD.”

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 103:1-2, 3-4, 8, 10, 12-13

R. (8a) The Lord is kind and merciful.

Reading 2

1 Cor 3:16-23

Brothers and sisters:
Do you not know that you are the temple of God,
and that the Spirit of God dwells in you?
If anyone destroys God's temple, God will destroy that person;
for the temple of God, which you are, is holy.
Let no one deceive himself.
If any one among you considers himself wise in this age,
let him become a fool, so as to become wise.
For the wisdom of this world is foolishness in the eyes of God,
for it is written:
God catches the wise in their own ruses,
and again:
The Lord knows the thoughts of the wise,
that they are vain.
So let no one boast about human beings, for everything
belongs to you,
Paul or Apollos or Cephas,
or the world or life or death,
or the present or the future:
all belong to you, and you to Christ, and Christ to God.

Gospel

Mt 5:38-48

Jesus said to his disciples:
“You have heard that it was said,
An eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth.
But I say to you, offer no resistance to one who is evil.
When someone strikes you on your right cheek,
turn the other one as well.
If anyone wants to go to law with you over your tunic,
hand over your cloak as well.
Should anyone press you into service for one mile,
go for two miles.
Give to the one who asks of you,
and do not turn your back on one who wants to borrow.
“You have heard that it was said,
You shall love your neighbor and hate your enemy.
But I say to you, love your enemies
and pray for those who persecute you,
that you may be children of your heavenly Father,
for he makes his sun rise on the bad and the good,
and causes rain to fall on the just and the unjust.
For if you love those who love you, what recompense will you have?
Do not the tax collectors do the same?
And if you greet your brothers only,
what is unusual about that?
Do not the pagans do the same?
So be perfect, just as your heavenly Father is perfect.”

Reflection

Turning Enemies into Friends

*When Abraham Lincoln was running for President of the United States there was a man called Stanton,
who never lost an opportunity to vilify him.
Yet when Lincoln won the election
he gave Stanton a post in his cabinet. Why?
Because he considered him the best man for the job.
And Lincoln was proved right.
Stanton gave him loyal service.
Asked why he didn't destroy his enemies,
Lincoln replied,
"Do I not destroy my enemies when I make them my friends?"*
