DID YOU COMMIT?

In the Christmas Big Bulletin there was a description of each one of our 48 different Ministries. Parishioners were asked to read the descriptions and bring to God in prayer where the Risen Jesus might be calling you to serve. Over the past two weekends you had the opportunity to commit to at least one Parish Ministry. Did you? If you did thank you for your participation in the life of this great parish. If you did not what stopped you? What would it make you to change your mind? Have you asked the Risen Lord about your decision? Should you change your mind you can still make a commitment to a Ministry. Forms are available at the Welcome Desk or Parish Office.

LENT - ASHES - PALMS

This year Lent is rather late beginning on 9 March. We will have two Masses. The first at 9.30am with all Resurrection Primary school children participating. Our evening Mass is at 7.30pm. The branches will be burnt and the ashes become our ashes for Ash Wednesday.

Next Week's Readings – 27th February 8th Sunday in Ordinary Time – Year A

Reading 1

Is 49:14-15

Zion said, "The LORD has forsaken me; my LORD has forgotten me." Can a mother forget her infant, be without tenderness for the child of her womb? Even should she forget, I will never forget you.

Responsorial Psalm

Ps 62:2-3, 6-7, 8-9

R. (6a) Rest in God alone, my soul.

Reading 2

1 Cor 4:1-5

Brothers and sisters: Thus should one regard us: as servants of Christ and stewards of the mysteries of God. Now it is of course required of stewards that they be found trustworthy. It does not concern me in the least that I be judged by you or any human tribunal; I do not even pass judgment on myself; I am not conscious of anything against me, but I do not thereby stand acquitted; the one who judges me is the Lord. Therefore do not make any judgment before the appointed time, until the Lord comes, for he will bring to light what is hidden in darkness and will manifest the motives of our hearts, and then everyone will receive praise from God.

Gospel

Mt 6:24-34

Jesus said to his disciples: "No one can serve two masters. He will either hate one and love the other, or be devoted to one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and mammon. "Therefore I tell you, do not worry about your life, what you will eat or drink, or about your body, what you will wear. Is not life more than food and the body more than clothing? Look at the birds in the sky; they do not sow or reap, they gather nothing into barns, yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Are not you more important than they? Can any of you by worrying add a single moment to your life-span? Why are you anxious about clothes? Learn from the way the wild flowers grow. They do not work or spin. But I tell you that not even Solomon in all his splendor was clothed like one of them. If God so clothes the grass of the field, which grows today and is thrown into the oven tomorrow, will he not much more provide for you, O you of little faith? So do not worry and say, 'What are we to eat?' or 'What are we to drink?' or 'What are we to wear?' All these things the pagans seek. Your heavenly Father knows that you need them all. But seek first the kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all these things will be given you besides. Do not worry about tomorrow; tomorrow will take care of itself. Sufficient for a day is its own evil."

Reflection

Out in the fields

The little cares that fretted me
I lost them yesterday
Among the fields above the sea,
Among the winds at play,
Among the lowing of the herds,
The rustling of the trees,
Among the singing of the birds,
The humming of the bees.
The foolish fears of what may happen
I cast them all away,
Among the clover-scented grass,
Among the new-mown hay;
Among the husking of the corn
Where drowsy poppies nod,
Where ill thoughts die and good are born,
Out in the fields with God.
