Those parishioners who are Proclaimers of the Word might consider gathering with Fr Noel each Thursday night after our 7pm Mass in the MacKillop Room to discuss the following weekend's Readings. You are requested to read the Readings beforehand (they are printed in our weekly and monthly bulletins).

PARISH BBQ BREAK-UP

With so many individuals and groups being faithful to their chosen ministry commitments through the year and attending their group session at the Parish Meeting Night on the first Wednesday of each month, how do you say thank you to everyone. In previous years we have had a Parish Break-Up BBQ where we can come together at one function to celebrate and get to know each other better.

This year the Break-Up BBQ is on December 7th at 7.00pm to share a meal, have some fun and meet other dedicated people.

If you are in a Parish Group or on any Ministry or help out in any way, you and your family are invited to come along to this BBQ. Meat and drinks will be provided.

Please bring along a salad or dessert to share.

Next Week's Reading - 27th November, 2011
1st Sunday of Advent - Year B

Reading 1 Is 63:16b-17, 19b; 64:2-7

You, LORD, are our father, our redeemer you are named forever. Why do you let us wander, O LORD, from your ways, and harden our hearts so that we fear you not? Return for the sake of your servants, the tribes of your heritage. Oh, that you would rend the heavens and come down, with the mountains quaking before you, while you wrought awesome deeds we could not hope for, such as they had not heard of from of old. No ear has ever heard, no eye ever seen, any God but you doing such deeds for those who wait for him. Would that you might meet us doing right, that we were mindful of you in our ways!
Behold, you are angry, and we are sinful; all of us have become like unclean people, all our good deeds are like polluted rags; we have all withered like leaves and our guilt carries us away like the wind. There is none who calls upon your name, who rouses himself to cling to you; for you have hidden your face from us and have delivered us up to our guilt. Yet, O LORD, you are our father; we are the clay and you the potter: we are all the work of your hands.

Responsorial Psalm Ps 80:2-3, 15-16, 18-19

Lord, make us turn to you; let us see your face and we shall be saved.

Reading 2 1 Cor 1:3-9

Brothers and sisters:
Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.
I give thanks to my God always on your account for the grace of God bestowed on you in Christ Jesus, that in him you were enriched in every way, with all discourse and all knowledge, as the testimony to Christ was confirmed among you, so that you are not lacking in any spiritual gift as you wait for the revelation of our Lord Jesus Christ. He will keep you firm to the end, irreproachable on the day of our Lord Jesus Christ. God is faithful, and by him you were called to fellowship with his Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

Gospel Mk 13:33-37

Jesus said to his disciples:
"Be watchful! Be alert!
You do not know when the time will come.
It is like a man traveling abroad.
He leaves home and places his servants in charge, each with his own work, and orders the gatekeeper to be on the watch.
Watch, therefore;
you do not know when the Lord of the house is coming, whether in the evening, or at midnight, or at cockcrow, or in the morning.
May he not come suddenly and find you sleeping.
What I say to you, I say to all: "Watch!"

'Come, you who are blessed by my Father.

Reflection

A Time of Hope

*It is said that while there is life there is hope.
This has an even deeper meaning in reverse:
while there is hope there is life.
Hope is strength.
Hope sheds light into despairing hearts.
It inspires the will to live.
It is the doctor's most powerful ally.
It is a shield against defeat and failure.
It revives ideals and renews dreams.
As long as there is hope,
no situation is impossible.
Advent summons us to wait in joyful hope for the coming of our Saviour, Jesus Christ.
In the final analysis, he is our hope.*
