PARISH MEETING NIGHT

Our first Parish Meeting Night for 2011-12 is on Wednesday 6 July. Normally our meetings commence at 7.15pm. Traditionally we begin a new year with a Eucharistic celebration. As there are a large number of parishioners committed to a Parish Group for the first time we would like to commence just for this month at 7pm. This will then give sufficient time for parishioners to get to know one another. The August meeting (3 August) will revert to the usual 7.15pm start.

STEWARDSHIP PROGRAM 2011

Our Stewardship Program is coming to a close and again we wish to warmly thank everyone for their involvement during the Program and for the generous response we have had. A special thanks to all the volunteers who helped with home visiting and follow-up phone calls. The new Stewardship Envelopes are available today in alphabetical order and new pledging period begins next weekend Sunday 26 June.

Pledge cards are available at the church entrance if you have not yet had a chance to complete one. Completed cards can be left in the collection plate or dropped off to the Parish Office. Thank you all again for your kind generosity.

New Stewardship envelopes will be in the narthex this weekend for pick up. Please pick up your envelopes this will save the parish postage costs. If you do not receive your set of envelopes please contact the parish office.

School families had Stewardship envelopes distributed to the school on Friday 17th June. So please check your eldest child's school bag if you have not received the Stewardship envelopes. School families who have not joined Stewardship Program please contact the Parish Office, it is to your advantage to join the program to receive the school discount.

Next Week's Reading – 26th June

Body & Blood of Christ – Year A

Reading 1

Dt 8:2-3, 14b – 16a

Moses said to the people: "Remember how for forty years now the LORD, your God, has directed all your journeying in the desert, so as to test you by affliction and find out whether or not it was your intention to keep his commandments. He therefore let you be afflicted with hunger, and then fed you with manna, a food unknown to you and your fathers, in order to show you that not by bread alone does one live, but by every word that comes forth from the mouth of the LORD. "Do not forget the LORD, your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, that place of slavery; who guided you through the vast and terrible desert with its saraph serpents and scorpions, its parched and waterless ground; who brought forth water for you from the flinty rock and fed you in the desert with manna, a food unknown to your fathers."

Responsorial Psalm

147:12-13, 14-15, 19-20

R. (12) Praise the Lord, Jerusalem. or: R. Alleluia.

Reading II

1 Cor 10:16-17

Brothers and sisters: The cup of blessing that we bless, is it not a participation in the blood of Christ? The bread that we break, is it not a participation in the body of Christ? Because the loaf of bread is one, we, though many, are one body, for we all partake of the one loaf.

Gospel

Jn 6:51-58

Jesus said to the Jewish crowds: "I am the living bread that came down from heaven; whoever eats this bread will live forever; and the bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world."

The Jews quarreled among themselves, saying, "How can this man give us his flesh to eat?" Jesus said to them, "Amen, amen, I say to you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you do not have life within you. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him on the last day. For my flesh is true food, and my blood is true drink. Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me and I in him. Just as the living Father sent me and I have life because of the Father, so also the one who feeds on me will have life because of me. This is the bread that came down from heaven.

Unlike your ancestors who ate and still died, whoever eats this bread will live forever."

Reflection

"Do not forget the Lord, your God...who brought forth water for you from the flinty rock and fed you in the desert with manna."

- Deuteronomy 8:14 - 16

It takes great trust to follow the Lord in a life of stewardship. Yet, just as He provided for the Israelites, God will provide us with all that we need. We in turn must be willing to hold our many gifts – not with a clenched fist – but rather with an open hand, ready and willing to share.
